IN THE HIGH COURT OF KARNATAKA AT DHARWAD

[ASHOK KUMAR S/O ARJUNAPPA AMBORE

VS.

THE VILLAGE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER/PDO]

20.08.2025 (PHYSICAL HEARING)

CORAM: ADDL. REGISTRAR JUDICIAL

ORAL ORDER

The learned Counsel for the Petitioner is present.

1.)IA No.1/2025

The learned counsel for the Petitioner has filed I.A.No.1/2025 praying for four weeks time for production of typed copy of Annexure –B1 and B2.

The Order as per Annexure- D is under challenge.

In the application it is stated that, the petitioner is not in a position to submit the typed copies of the Annexure -B1 and B2 in view of the urgency and has undertaken to produce the same within a period of four weeks.

Hence, grounds made out are satisfactory.

Hence, I.A.No.1/2024 is allowed and four weeks time is granted for production of typed copies of Annexure – B1 amd B2.

2.)IA No.2/2025

The learned counsel for the Petitioner has filed I.A.No.2/2025 praying for four weeks time for production of certified copy of Annexure – D.

The Order as per Annexure- D is under challenge.

In the application it is stated that, the petitioner is not in a position to submit the certified copy of the Annexure -D in view of the urgency and has undertaken to produce the same within a period of four weeks.

Hence, grounds made out are satisfactory.

Hence, I.A.No.2/2025 is allowed and four weeks time is granted for production of certified copy of Annexure – D.

3)Office Objection No.43(5):

The office has raised the objection that, all the persons whose name is found in the RTC are not made parties.

The learned Counsel has submitted that, this Writ Petition is filed only to limited extent to direct the Respondents to issue the RTC in respect of the said land and no relief is claimed against the Owners of the land.

This submission of the learned Counsel is correct. Hence, the persons whose name are found in the RTC's may not be the necessary parties.

As this objection relates to the non-joinder of the party, the matter has to be placed before the Hon'ble Court for its decision on this objection.

4) Hence, the following

ORDER

The IA No.1/2025 and 2/2025 are allowed as prayed for with no order as to costs.

The office objection at SL. No.43(5) along with the submission of the learned Advocate for the Petitioner and the above Office note is placed before the Hon'ble Court for its decision on the said office objection.

List the matter before the Hon'ble Court.
